

MAFFS C-130 models can only be loaded on the right side of the aircraft. Same side simultaneous fueling and loading can be completed safely by ensuring the fuel truck is positioned such that the fueling hose is not routed under the wing of the aircraft and that the fueling and loading hoses never cross. If loading is accomplished from wrapping around the back of the MAFFS aircraft, ensure that the pintle armed light is not illuminated before proceeding.