

ASSIGNMENT OF COURSE TITLE AND NUMBER TO S-320, INTRODUCTION TO INCIDENT MANAGEMENT TEAMS COURSE

BACKGROUND

To support the implementation of Complex Incident Management, the NWCG Executive Board tasked (23-001-AMENDED II) the Incident and Position Standards Committee (IPSC) to establish a new Incident Management Team (IMT) Course Steering Committee (IMTCSC) to establish a three-tiered training course system to support the development of Complex Command & General Staff (C&G) trainees. The intent is to have a systems approach to IMT training that facilitates progression from basic to intermediate and from intermediate to advanced. A single steering committee will oversee all three courses to ensure curriculum alignment.

CURRENT STATUS

IPSC has reviewed and approved the new basic IMT course that the NWCG IMT CSC has developed. The course is intended to equip students with the necessary introductory knowledge and skills to effectively function as members of an IMT. The course is blended with a self-directed online component and an in-person component.
