

National Wildfire Coordinating Group

Leadership Committee

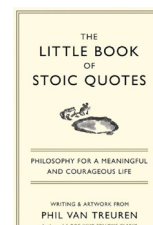

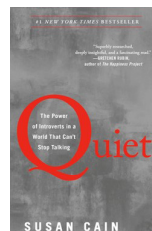

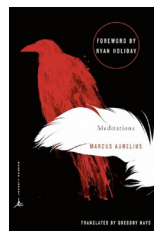

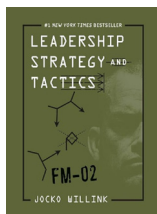

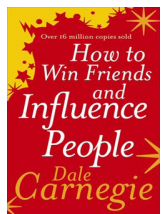

The Leadership Committee promotes and enables the development of leaders in the wildland fire service. Check out some of the opportunities to grow your leadership journey below through the Wildland Fire Leadership Development Program!

Professional Reading Program

Whether you're traveling to your next assignment and listen to an audio book or grab one of the titles for a winter read, you can engage with the Professional Reading Program however works best for you! Find annual selected titles accompanied by discussion guides for self-reflection or discussions with your unit.

2026 Selections

Paul Gleason Lead By Example Award

Nominate someone you know who inspires who exemplifies wildland fire leadership values and principles! The Paul Gleason Lead by Example Award is presented by the NWCG Leadership Committee to remember Paul Gleason's many contributions to the wildland fire community and recognize individuals or groups that exhibit the same spirit and dedication to leadership...those who lead by example. Nominations are now open for the 2026 award season. Scan the QR code to learn more and nominate someone today!

Scan here to find more resources:

- After Action Reviews
- Briefing & Intent
- Electronic Library
- Crew Cohesion Assessment
- Field Leadership Assessment Course
- LEAD Time
- Leading in the Wildland Fire Service, PMS 494-2
- Leaders We'd Like to Meet
- Leadership Media
- Self-Development Plan
- Staff Ride Library
- Standard Operating Procedures
- Tactical Decision Games
- Wildland Fire Leadership Campaign