

Incident Personnel Injury and Illness Quantity

Status: Approved

Description

Total number of reportable occupational injuries and illnesses, which resulted in lost work days, that occurred in conjunction with an incident.

Also includes cases without lost work days which result in transfer to another job, termination of employment, or required medical treatment (other than first aid); or which involved loss of consciousness, or restriction of work or motion.

(First aid and lost work days are further defined under OSHA Part 1904.)
